

Prof. Dr. Giorgio Dominese - Curriculum

Giorgio Dominese is the founder of CEEUN-Central Eastern European University Network and President of Transition Studies Research Network, being also Editor of Transition Studies Review and of the Journal of Global Policy and Governance, all of them published by Transition Academia Press and indexed with Elsevier Scopus.

After lecturing at Ca' Foscari Venice University (1973-1975), he was for twenty-two years confirmed professor at Roma LUISS University, as Chair of Economic and Policy of Transitions, then International Relations and from 2011 to 2014 and as Chair of Geopolitics at the Master of Science in International Relations. At the same time, he was Professor of Transitions Economics at Udine University from 2002 to 2008 and on 2007 he start lecturing at the Course of European Economy and Financial Governance in full English at Rome Tor Vergata University until 2011.

Consul of the Republic of Chile (Honorary) in Venice since 1991, appointed by the President of the Republic of Chile and then with exequatur of the President of Republic of Italy, he actively participated to many programs of economic, cultural, diplomatic and institutional relevance from the start of his position up to now, in close cooperation with the Chile Embassy in Rome.

Professor Dominese has been visiting professor in Beijing at the CFAU-China Foreign Affairs University in the second semester 2012 and lecturing from 2012 to 2014 at UIBE University Beijing. He has been delivering lectures at Renmin University of China, CIIS and Tianjin University. He had been visiting professor at Fudan University in Shanghai, at the School of International Relations, from 2008 to 2010 and at the School of International Management in 2006-2007. Visiting professor at the Vietnam National University at Ho Chi Minh City, he was lecturing there in 2012 and 2013.

He had been lecturing as well at Beijing University and visiting professor for full courses at Bahia Blanca University in Argentina and at the Astana ENU-Eurasian National University in Kazakhstan, lecturing as well at George Washington University USA, EMUNI University Slovenia, MGIMO, HSE and Academy of Science-European Institute in Moscow, Latvia University Riga. In 2013, 2015, 2017 and 2019 he attended the Singapore Economic Review conferences in cooperation with Nanyang Technological University. He was presenting a main paper at the Seminar on Law, Economics and Growth at the Chulalongkorn University Bangkok in 2015.

In 2009 he became full member of the European Academy of Sciences and Arts in Salzburg. Called professor at the University Tor Vergata Rome, he was chairing from 2009 the full English courses in Economics and Finance at the School of Economics, while from 2011 to 2012 he was called Delegate of the Rector as Special Coordinator for the Program Rome World University-RWU. He was Program Coordinator of the second YICGG Research Competition “Global Governance: Growth and Innovation 2020”, organized in Rome in August 2008, involving young doctoral, postgraduates and graduate students, as well as Joint-Coordinator of the third edition 2009 of this event at Ilia State University in Tbilisi, Georgia, while he had been in the Judging Commission of YICGG 2013 at Fudan University.

Consultant and advisor both for Italian Government and UN system Organizations, as well for multinational companies and banks, he had two years professional experience in international programs for Development in African and Asian countries. Visiting Fellow in U.S. he is member of the IISS International Institute for Strategic Studies London; AEA-American Economic Association-USA; DGAP-Deutsche Gesellschaft für Auswärtige Politik, Berlin; DOC-Research Centre, Berlin; IPSA-International Political Science Association, Montreal. He is Member of the Advisory Board at Taras Shevchenko University Kyiv IIR Global Sustainable Development.

For many years member of the of the Scientific Board of WiFo (Austrian Institute of Economic Research) in Vienna, he was expert in the follow ups of the Stability Pact for Southeast Europe and still active in several other European and Asian international research Institutions; he had been appointed by Rotary International with Special Award and Paul Harris Fellowship for his international valuable programs and activities.

A professional journalist up to now, he was for almost 20 years special envoy for newspapers and magazines, author of investigative journalism, main reports, comments and articles on topics, events, political issues, international relations, strategic studies, economics, finance, society and global governance. In the wide fan of professional long-lasting experience, he had been advisor and consultant of main Companies and Institutions as Caffaro, SNIA, Zoppas Industries, Banca Intesa San Paolo, Elecxtrolux- Zanussi Grandi Impianti, Cogefar -FIAT, San Benedetto, as well as of Regione del Veneto (1991-2000), Advisor at Ministry of Transport in Rome and Regione Friuli Venezia-Giulia in Trieste.

Venice, January 2020